VOL. VIII. NO. 194.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 14, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS

SIDNEY C. LOVE'S STAKE.

The Proviso Stakes, the feature event at Harlem yesterday, proved to be an easy thing for M. H. Tichenor & Co.'s good colt Sidney C. Love, which ran to his best form and really made the field look cheap. Gold Bell, on account of the soft going, through which he is supposed to run to his best form, opened at 6 to 5, but steadily receded in the betting and was held at 11 to 5 at post time. Sidney C. Love opened at 2 1/2 to 1, but the steady pressure of the "wise" money backed him down to 6 to 5 in a short time. To a good start Sidney C. Love at once assumed command and, running well within himself throughout, won easily by two lengths from Philo, which beat Poor Boy two and a half lengths for second place. Philo ran a surprisingly good race and was much the best of those that finished back of him. Poor Boy tired fast in the stretch and apparently did not take kindly to the going. Gold Bell's effort was a disappointment and surprise to his many backers. He was supposed to have a splendid chance on account of the track conditions, but ran a dull race and labored palpably all through the last eighth. Style was never a serious contender. The stake was worth $2,470 to the winner.

The steeplechase handicap over the short course proved an easy victory for Helen Paxton, which fenced cleanly throughout and beat the field handily through the short stretch. Mazo led by a big margin until after taking the seventh jump, where she fell away well beaten. Along here Helen Paxton took command and was never afterward headed, winning by three and one-half lengths from Old Fox, which beat Bristol seven for second place. Old Fox sprawled badly in trying to overtake Helen Paxton in the last eighth. Bristol had enough after taking the last jump. Henry Gibbs fell over the third jump and Dr. Nowlin, in trying to make a sharp turn after taking the eighth, ran into the flag, carrying it with him and losing his rider.

The fifth race of the day was declared off on account of much scratching, and the full quota of six races was made up by splitting the first race in halves. Of the first portion Hattie Walker was the best, running Versifier into early submission and then assuming an easy command, which she held to the end. She won by three and a half lengths from Versifier, which beat Chicago Girl two for second place.

In the other half Adios, well ridden by Coburn, won by one and a half lengths from Apple Sweet, which beat Lady Churchill three and a half for second place. Apple Sweet stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Lady Churchill tired fast in the last eighth. Corsica showed a little early speed.

Brigadier, a horse that showed to little advantage in the mud at Washington Park, won the third race with ridiculous ease by eight lengths from Emma R., which finished a length before Fairbury for second place. Brigadier was backed down from 6 to 3 to 1 by post time, and was heavily backed by the sharp-shooters. Geyser, which opened favorite, but receded in the betting, ran an unaccountably dull race and was never a serious contender.

The finale went to Guy H., which suffered Pirate's Queen in the lead for four and a half furlongs and then took command running away from the field and winning by twelve lengths from Pirate's Queen which beat Silurian eight for second place. Lady Bramble showed well for six furlongs. Silurian ran nowhere to his best form and can do much better.

Despite the inclement conditions a large crowd was present. The track was soft and mushy on top, but with a firm bottom. At its best it will be soft and slow today.

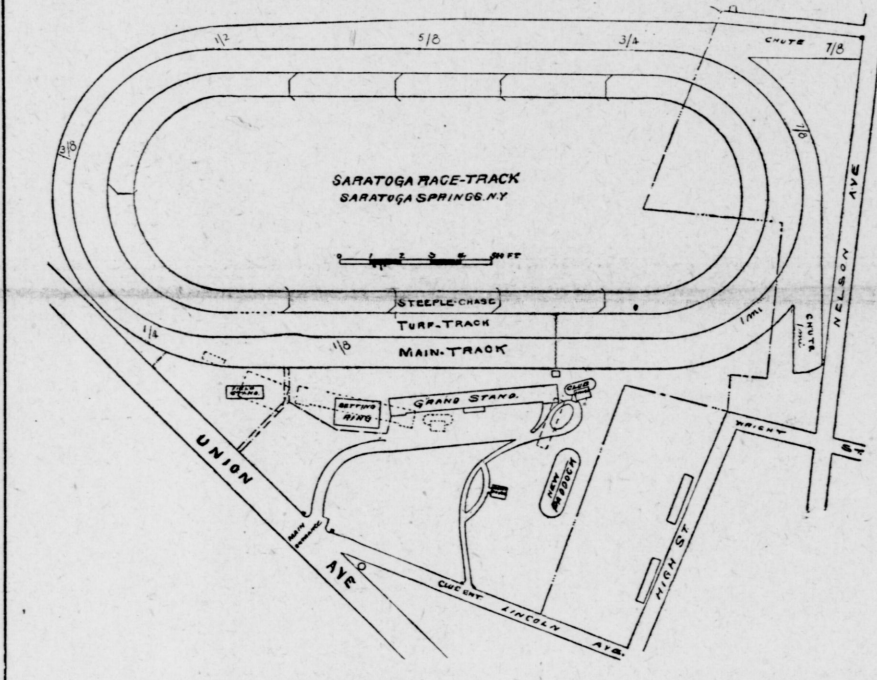

TWO GREAT TRACKS.

In response to a number of queries concerning the plan of the new Saratoga track and others in regard to the Eclipse course at Morris Park, diagrams of the two are here presented, the diagram of the Saratoga track being reproduced from the New York Morning Telegraph. The mile course at Saratoga, starting from a chute at the right of the grand stand, is a notable feature. In effect it does away with the first turn of the ordinary oval mile track and is bound to be conducive to fast performances. Douro's mile in 1:38 yesterday is sufficient to show that Brigadier's record of 1:37 1/4 will probably be eclipsed before the present meeting

Vic Britton will be here today from Saratoga, where he purchased, in connection with S. Bender, the three-year-old Jack Demund, which should prove a useful horse in the fall racing over the Chicago tracks.

C. T. Boots, the owner of Argregor, returned yesterday from California, where he has been on a tour of inspection at his stock ranch. While there he shipped a number of horses to Sacramento, to be campaigned at the fairs.

comes to a close. There are certainly faster horses at Saratoga than Douro.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Entries for the steeplechase and handicap to be run at Hawthorne on the opening day close Friday morning, and the weights will be announced Saturday.

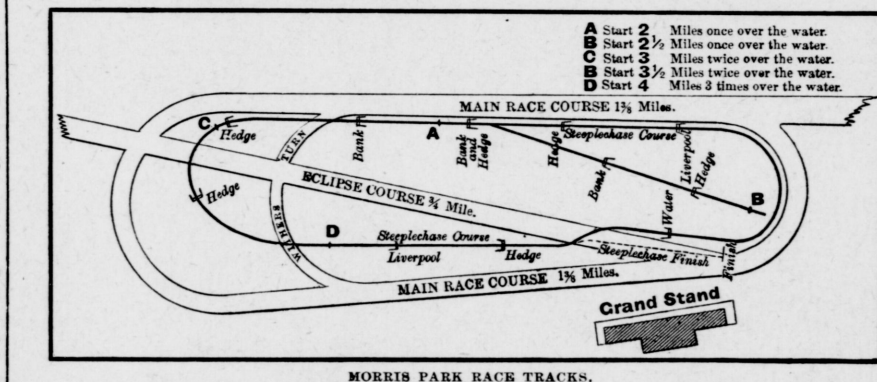

C. E. Durnell has purchased from S. C. Hildreth

J. J. Marklein was a visitor at Harlem yesterday and stated that he would shortly ship his horses from Detroit to race on the local tracks.

The Chicago Jockey Club, at their coming meeting, will only issue coupons to go with the old badges.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

When Mr. Bratton became identified with the the four-year-old horse Nitrate, the reported price being $2,500. He also purchased from C. Lind Lass of Langden for $1,100.

Jockey Mathews left last night for St. Louis, where he will ride at the coming Kinloch Park meeting. He also shipped the horse Captain Gaines to race there.

Guy H., the winner of the last race, was bid up and bought by S. L'Hommedieu for $800.

Kinloch Jockey Club he consulted with his associates and they decided to build a steeplechase course similar to those in England. Mr. Bratton had the course surveyed and personally superintended the construction. After it was completed he christened each obstacle, the same as they do in England. After the bunting is dipped by the starter the first jump is called "Down Patrick," the next "Wash House," and should the timber-topper successfully clear this barrier he will next face "Donnybrook." Half of the journey will then have been passed. "Blackwater" is the next jump; then comes "Bal-doyle," and last, but not least, is "Liverpool." The stretch is then reached, and the journey to the wire is then easy. Mr. Bratton is of the opinion that the steeplechase events will be very interesting to the real lovers of racing. Horses are daily being schooled over the new steeplechase course.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Concerning certain rumors in relation to the future control of the Latonia race track a Cincinnati newspaper says:

"There was considerable gossip during the spring meeting to the effect that Mayor Fleischmann and his brother, Max Fleischmann, had purchased a large number of the shares of stock in the Latonia Jockey Club, but this was untrue. Then Mayor Fleischmann had only his original holdings, which were a very few shares, and he has since made no purchases which have been recorded on the books of the club.

"However, Mayor Fleischmann has a lively interest in the future of Latonia from a sportsman's viewpoint, and it is not beyond the range of possibilities that he and his associates, as well as other prominent Cincinnatians, will become large shareholders in the historical old club, which has weathered a decline following the ravages of a crew of gamblers, and is now bidding again for the first-rank position it once held among the racing organizations in the west.

"The majority of the stock is controlled by President George G. Perkins, who is at present with his family at Magnolia, Mass. Prior to his departure for the east, Judge Perkins said that certain Cincinnatians had discussed with him the future of the club and at that time he intimated that it was his intention to part with much of the stock and that it would go into the hands of gentlemen who have the best interests of the sport at heart and would bend their energies in the direction of the upbuilding of Latonia.

"Judge Perkins will be here during the course of the next seven weeks and there is a probability that after his arrival there will be several changes in the roll of stockholders."

Concerning a participant in the Golf Steeplechase at Harlem, Monday, the St. Louis Republic says:

"John S. Bratton took a dog named Teller to Chicago to run in a steeplechase stake on Monday. Bratton's friends all got down for limit bets. The horse had shown good fencing ability at the Fair Grounds and also speed and staying power in trials. He finished last of the horses that stood up. He was backed from 20 to 1 to 5 to 1. Everybody at the Delmar race track had a bet on him in local handbooks. You could not pass through the Delmar ring that some fellow would call you and say: "Put a little bet on Teller in Chicago today. He will win sure." Tom Kearney reaped a harvest. "Tom Morgan, who went up to see Teller run, says: 'He got off in front and was in front for six furlongs. He jumped handsomely and we thought that we had it "in." Suddenly MacLaren collared him and he threw up head and tail and then quit cold without excuse.'

"It is always thus with these good things. Undoubtedly the horse was short of racing work. Gallops and work-outs are all right, but it takes races in the colors to the crowd and track bustle to fit them. Quiet gallops in the morning are different things from screaming races in the afternoon. They will bet on Teller another time and lose, then turn him down as of no account. Then he will come on and gallop home. The races he loses will about fit him."

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1902 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1901; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1901 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1901. Also a complete record of performances in billiards.

Went to post at 5:24. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Lemuel had to go all around the leaders to get up, but finished strongly and caught Chantierelle tiring and got up in the last stride. Chantierelle showed the most early speed, but tired in the last furlong and was probably a bit short. Illowaho tired when the pinch came, as also did Aden.
Scratched—34228 Binehelio, 104; 34199 Linora, 99.
Corrected weights—Chantierelle, 102.
Overweights—Concertina, 5 pounds; Peter T., 2.
Lemuel, show, 4 to 5. Chantierelle, show, 4 to 5. Illowaho, show, 2 to 5. Aden, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 11.25, 22.5, 47.5, 1:00.5, 1:07.5.
Winner—Ch. f. by Golden Garter—Amorette (trained by J. E. Madden).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second handily. Girdle, a quick breaker, sustained her superior speed in improved fashion and was best today. She is a grand looker. Grantsdale finished like a good one, closed a big gap, had a rough journey and must be of high class. Boutonniere, by bearing out on the stretch turn, lost considerable ground and can do better. Mansard, probably short, displayed brilliant speed and tired at the end, is evidently of good class. Elgardon was nearly left, closed an immense gap and ran a remarkable race. Elliott went to post sore and is probably reserved for later events over a distance. He has worked six furlongs in 1:14 flat. Catechise fell out of it at the start. Guy Park will improve.
Scratched—34140 Michaelmas, 112; 34215 Fullback, 112.
Whitney entry, show, 2 to 5. Grantsdale, show, 10 to 1. Haggin entry, show, out.

34313 SECOND RACE—Short Course. $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Steeplechase. Gentlemen Riders.

Time, 4:14.3.
Winner—B. c. by Lissak—Lady Royster (trained by J. Allen).
Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Rowdy suffered from a costly error over the Liverpool and nearly fell, but recovered quickly and outgamed Clasher in a final drive through the last quarter. The latter showed superior form as a jumper and should win before long. Victor fell and was remounted and finished well. Tankard, very unruly and poorly ridden, is a non-stayer.
Scratched—34014 Tentore, 151; 33354 Glenvarloch, 150.
Clasher, show, out. Victor, show, 4 to 5.

34314 THIRD RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. 2-year-olds. Selling. The Troy Stakes. $1,000 added. Net value to winner, $3,265.
